The Fund returned +0.38% in October vs. +0.62% for the TSX Total Return.

We saw further consolidation in the Mining space this past month as Centerra Gold completed its purchase of Thompson Creek Metals Company in a US$1.1-billion deal. The crown jewel in this transaction was Mount Milligan, a large mine in British Columbia with 2.2 billion pounds of copper reserves and 5.7 million ounces of gold reserves. Centerra Gold raised C$170 in a bought deal through Subscription Receipts to partially fund the redemption of Thompson Creek Metals secured and unsecured debt as part of the terms of the transaction. This was a somewhat unique situation as the Fund was playing both the traditional Merger Arbitrage of the deal in addition to the spread on the listed Subscription Receipts capturing an attractive annualized return on both fronts.

Another Subscription Receipt deal of note saw Laurentian Bank of Canada closing its C$135 million Offering that was announced in late June. Proceeds from the Offering were used to finance a portion of the purchase price for the acquisition of the Canadian equipment financing and corporate financing activities of CIT Group Inc.
