The HGC Arbitrage Fund LP Class "F" units returned +0.46% in November vs +1.39% for the TSX Total Return.

One investment of note in the period was Ensign Energy Services Inc. (ESI) hostile takeover of Trinidad Drilling Ltd. (TDG). On August 30th Ensign mailed its formal offer to acquire Trinidad for $1.68 per share in cash by way of a hostile takeover. Trinidad's board of directors unanimously determined that Ensign's offer was not in the best interest of shareholders, thereby rejecting the offer and simultaneously initiating a formal process to seek alternative proposals. On October 5th Precision Drilling (PD) emerged as a white knight for Trinidad as the two companies announced a friendly deal whereby Precision would acquire Trinidad in an all-stock transaction. In spite of the friendly transaction being announced, Ensign chose not to withdraw the $1.68 cash offer. Without certainty of which offer would prevail, the fund chose to participate in the transaction through TDG debt, buying at a discount to the 101 change of control that would be triggered no matter which bidder ultimately won out. As it turned out, the Ensign bid became the obviously superior offer as Precisions stock price decreased over 25% from the initial announcement making its offer worth ~$1.47 on the November 27th Ensign tender deadline. Trinidad shareholders chose to tender their shares into the higher Ensign offer and ESI was able to gain majority control of the company, triggering the 101 change of control and allowing the fund to capture an attractive return.
